Kaltura

Chat user activity report

This Chat user activity report provides chat activity data for each attendee, speaker, or moderator.

> See Analytics tab - Reports for instructions on generating and downloading this report.

Data in the Chat user activity report includes the following:

- id - A unique ID of the user (attendee, speaker, or moderator).
- email - The user's email
- connections - The number of connections the user had during the event.
- internalReceived - The number of messages received from other attendees.
- internalSent - The number of messages sent to other attendees.
- externalReceived - The number of messages received from moderators.
- externalSent - The number of messages sent to moderators.

[template("cat-subscribe")]