

What is the recommended time to keep a log of server notifications?

The recommended time to keep the log of notifications is 48 hours. After 48 hours it should be safe to assume a notification will not be re-sent unless manually requested by an admin.
