Changing the KMC language

- KMC users can change the language by selecting the language of their choice from the drop down menu.

Changing Mediaspace Language

- Mediaspace users can change the language of their specific instance dynamically. When a language is changed, it is saved on a persistent cookie on that specific browser until it is deleted.
- Select the language of your choice from the user drop down menu. Note, there are 2 types of display possible:

- Administrators can create additional languages and customize existing languages. See Localization for KMS/KAF Administrators - How to Change Your Kaltura Application Language? for additional information.
