

Kaltura Webcasting Roles

Last Modified on 05/06/2026 8:41 pm IDT

The following table lists the typical roles in a Kaltura Webcasting event. The tasks for each role may be performed by different people or by an individual, depending on the event size and budget.

There may be one or more moderators per webcast event.

Webcasting Role	Description	Role	Webcast permissions
Owner/Producer	Owens the webcast, the person in the organization that is responsible for Webcasting. Responsible for the all aspects of the webcast event, from scheduling and planning the event, through real time monitoring of the event, to the final recording and event transcription.	Schedules and owns the webcast event in KMS. Can use all webcasting capabilities. Can define moderators and other collaborators. Can delete the webcast.	Can use all webcasting producer application capabilities.
Presenter	Speaker/Presenter of this specific webcast. The person that talks to the camera/mic during the webcast event. Also, responsible for answering questions proposed On-Air.	Selects and load slides deck. Moves slides Control views. Fires up	Can use all webcasting producer application capabilities.

Webcasting Role	Description	Permissions.	Webcast permissions
Moderator	Moderating and organizing the discussion in the Q&A area.	Role Answers Q&A. Moderating and organizing the discussion in the Q&A area. Providing technical support to participants. Engaging the live audience.	Can use the webcasting moderator via web application. Can only perform Q&A related activities, such as: Sending announcements. Replying to questions. Move questions between queues. Answer On- / Off- / Answer. Export Q&A.
Audio/Video (AV) Person	Deals with production equipment such as encoders/cameras/microphones/network/etc.	Responsible for the live stream video and audio to work properly.	Can use the webcasting producer application, focused on monitoring tab. Can use the live dashboard in Rich Media Content Management System (Rich Media CMS)

Webcasting Role Viewer/ Attendee	Description Audience of the webcast.	Role Viewing the webcast,	Webcast permissions No access.
		changing video/slides views, asking questions, answering polls	