If authentication is enabled and you try to start a recording without signing in, Lecture Capture prompts you to sign in.

Sign out

After you finish recording, click your username or the sign-out icon to sign out.

Authentication during scheduled recordings

Scheduled recordings start automatically without requiring you to sign in. Depending on your organization's configuration, you might need to sign in to perform actions during a scheduled recording.

Automatic sign-out

Lecture Capture automatically signs you out after 15 minutes of inactivity.
