About

The Media Gallery serves as a centralized space where all course-related content is stored, organized, and shared. Whether you're managing video lectures, presentations, or other multimedia resources, the Media Gallery provides a convenient way to upload, categorize, and distribute content.

This article walks you through the process of managing your Media Gallery, from adding new content to organizing existing content and ensuring your audience has access to the right materials at the right time.

> ✅ If you can't do some of the actions described here, just reach out to your KAF administrator to get the right permissions.
