Q&A message board

Content updated: 11/30/2021

This article is designated for Kaltura's Flagship Events customers

The chat message Board enables moderators to publish Q&As to all the attendees in the moderated context. Moderators can publish FAQs during a live session for all attendees to see and publish general Q&As on a channel page even before the event starts to make information more accessible to attendees.

See Chat and Collaborate Widget > Live Stage.
