About

Kaltura's media page provides many features when it comes to viewing and interacting with your media.

The instructions below are for non-Theming users. If you have Theming enabled, please refer to our article 'Media page - Theming'.

Let's check out some of its capabilities:

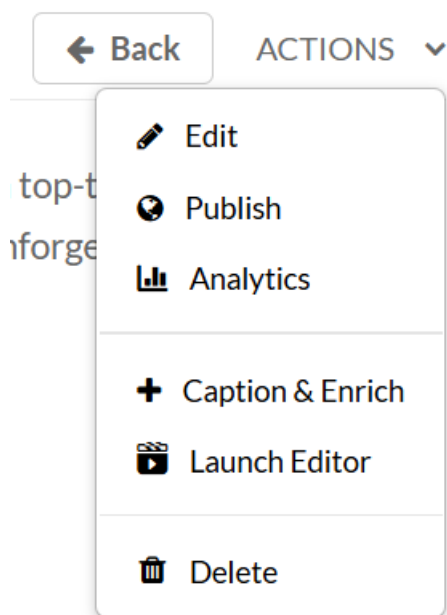

The screenshot shows a video player interface for a Kaltura media page. The video is titled "Product spotlight: unveiling innovation and features" and is from a customer training session dated May 22, 2024. The interface includes a video player with standard controls (play, pause, seek, volume, etc.), a title bar, and a description area. Below the video, there are tabs for "Details" and "Share", and a section for "Comments" with an "Add a Comment" input field. The interface is annotated with several callouts pointing to specific features:

- Player capabilities: Points to the video player controls.
- Title: Points to the video title.
- Owner and date: Points to the text "From Customer Training May 22, 2024".
- Tabs for information and sharing: Points to the "Details" and "Share" tabs.
- Information about the media: Points to the video description text.
- Courses in which the media appears: Points to the "Appears In" section, which lists "Kaltura Training Course".
- Like button: Points to the heart icon and "0" next to it.
- Number of comments: Points to the comment icon and "0" next to it.
- Back button: Points to the "Back" button in the top right corner.
- Actions menu: Points to the "ACTIONS" dropdown menu in the top right corner.
- Add a comment on the media: Points to the "Add a Comment" input field.
