About

Use Content Lab to generate AI-powered summaries and chapters for your videos. You can edit the generated summary, chapter titles, descriptions, and timestamps before publishing.

Looking for more information about this feature? Feel free to contact your Kaltura representative.

Before you start

Videos repurposed with AI must meet the following criteria:

- Video must be in "Ready" status (transcoded)
- Video must have English captions
- Video must be 60 seconds or more in length
- Account must have Content Lab enabled
- Account must have an active REACH profile enabled with relevant catalog item(s)

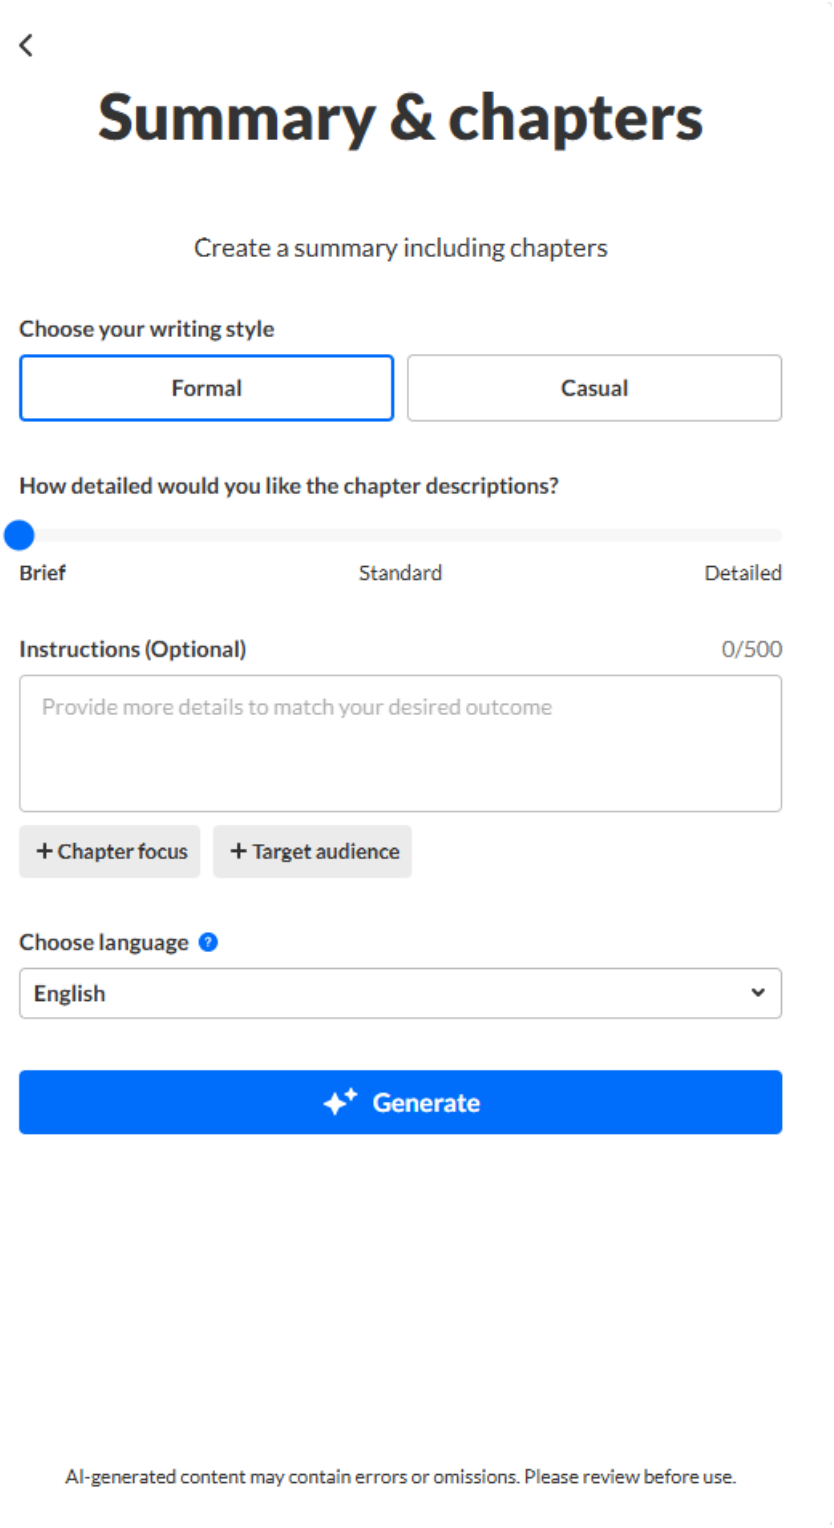

Create a summary and chapters

1. Open Content Lab. For instructions, see Access Content Lab in your Kaltura application.
2. Click Summary & Chapters.

   The Content Lab interface may look slightly different depending on the Kaltura application you're using, but the workflow is the same.

   If you've previously generated summaries and chapters for this entry, click Generate new.

information you include, the higher the chance of achieving your desired outcome.

a. Option 1: Manually type your own instructions in the Instructions field.
b. Option 2: Click on a preset tag provided below the Instructions field. The Instructions field is populated with that tag and a list of suggestions for additional text instructions displays. Click on one of the suggestions to autocomplete the instructions.
c. Option 3: Click on a preset tag. The Instructions field is populated with that tag and a list of suggestions for additional text instructions displays. Instead of clicking on one of the suggestions to autocomplete the instructions, manually type in the Instructions field to complete the text.

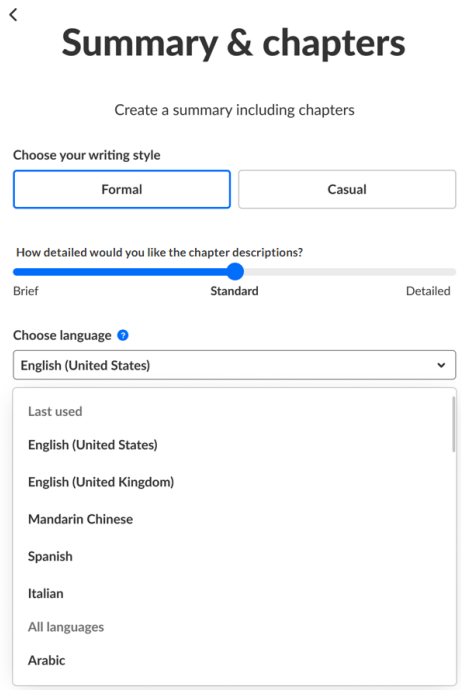

Following are the available preset tags:
- Chapter focus: The summary and chapters should be organized around main concepts, key takeaways, thematic groupings, or problem-solution frameworks.

- Target audience: Tailor the summary and chapters to a target audience of students, sales teams, marketing professionals, medical professionals, financial analysts, or technical teams.

6. Select the language for the generated summary, chapter titles, and descriptions.

You may click on the name of the chapter or the Summary button in the upper right corner of the player (highlighted below) to display the Summary and Chapters overlay.

The Summary and Chapters overlay (highlighted above) displays the summary and all chapters generated for this entry in a "chapter" view, meaning the summary and each chapter is displayed in a distinct box, with timeline points for each chapter. You may click on a chapter name or on the arrow to the right of a chapter name to read more. Clicking on a chapter name also advances the player to that chapter in the entry.

You may click Read as overview if you would like to read the Summary and Chapters as more of an "overview". Clicking on a chapter name here advances the player to that chapter in the entry as well.

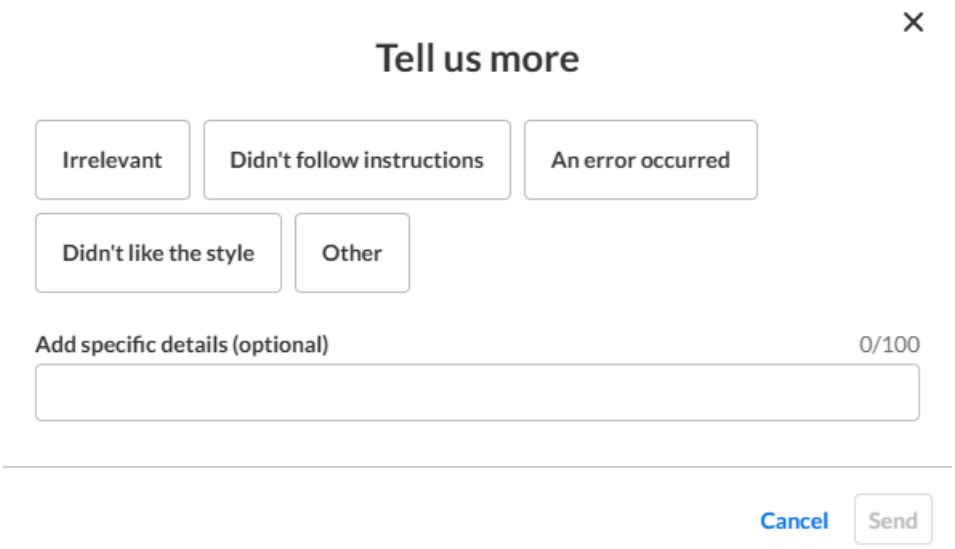

Click the "Copy" button to copy the text to a clipboard to share later.

Click the "X" button to close the Summary and Chapters overlay.
