About

This article shows you how to launch your Kaltura Studio room and share the link with others. You'll learn how to open the Studio from the "Basics" tab, join the room, and copy a private link so moderators and speakers can access the Studio ahead of your live webcast.

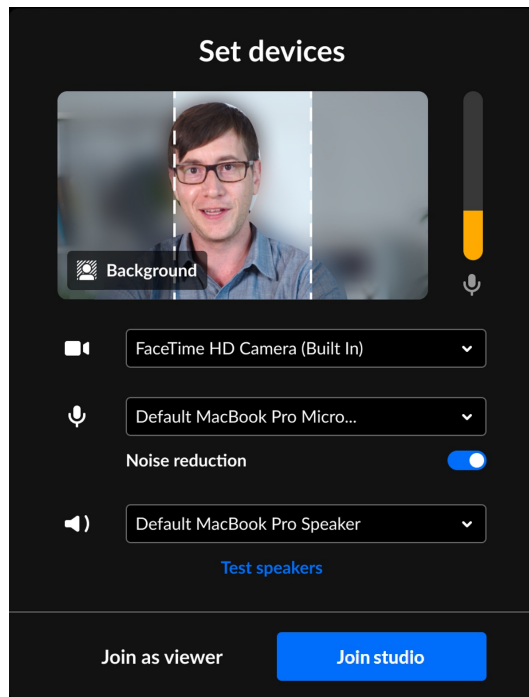

Launch the Kaltura Studio room

You may activate your broadcast studio, add files to your playlist, and start broadcasting directly from a Kaltura room.

1. Click on the Basics tab.
2. Click the Launch studio button.

The Set devices screen displays.

See Entering the Kaltura Studio room - device setup.

3. Click the Join studio button. The Kaltura Studio room displays.

See the Kaltura Studio room of the Kaltura Knowledge Center for complete information.

Copy Kaltura Studio room link to share with moderators and speakers

Let the moderators and speakers assigned to the session access the studio and begin preparing ahead of the broadcast.

1. Click on the Basics tab.
2. Click Copy link.
