About

Users can subscribe to channels to receive email notifications when new content is added.

Channel managers can enable subscriptions on their channels so viewers can stay up to date with the latest media.

For information about viewing and managing channel subscribers, see Manage channel subscribers.

- This feature requires the following to be enabled:
 - Channelsubscriptionmodule
 - Emailnotifications module - Make sure the Entry was added to channel notification is enabled. The email message sent for this notification can be customized.
- Channel managers must also enable subscriptions on the Subscribers tab of the Edit Channel page. See our article Create a channel for information.
- Subscribing to a channel does not grant access to the channel's content.
