About

You can manage your Agentic Avatar Studio plan, billing details, invoices, and usage from the account management page. If you have access to multiple accounts, you can also switch between them.

Access account management

1. Select Account management from the user menu.

The Account management page displays with the Plans Overview tab open by default.

View usage

Click Usage to track your current plan usage.

The Usage page shows:

- Interactions – The number of interactions used and your plan allowance, including when the interaction count resets.
- Knowledge storage – The amount of storage used and your plan allowance.
- Interactions analytics – Interaction volume over time. Select Daily or Monthly to change the time period displayed.

The progress bars show how much of your allowance you've used. Green indicates 0–80% usage, and red indicates usage above 80%.

Interactions in the preview area don't count toward your usage. Interactions on the agent site do.
