About

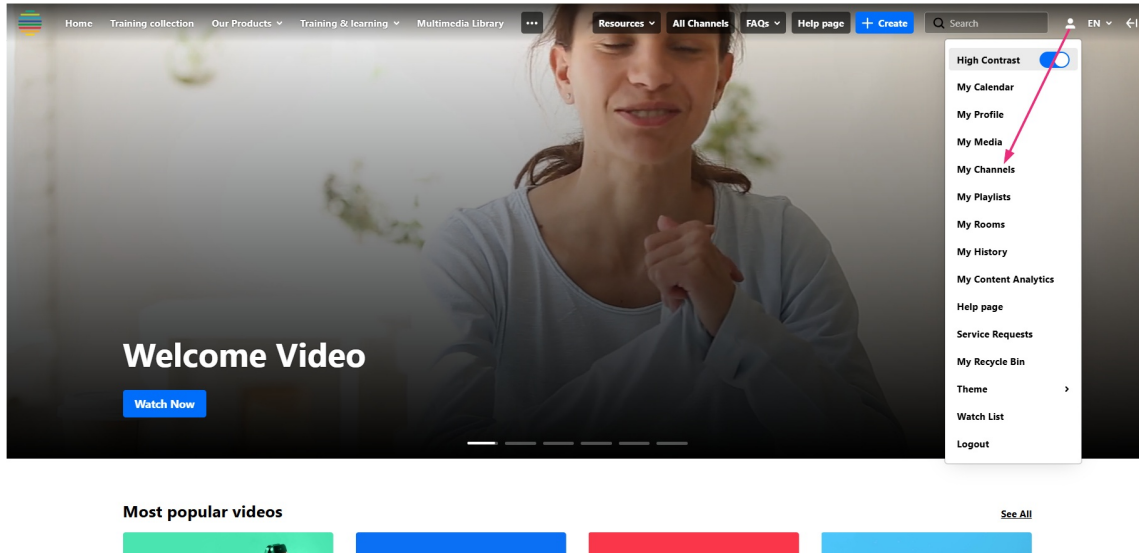

You can add a channel to one or more galleries or sub-galleries and manage existing gallery associations, depending on your entitlements.

 This feature requires the channelcategories module to be enabled.

To manage channel associations from the gallery side, see Manage channels in a gallery.

Access the channel edit page

1. Select My Channels from the user menu.

The All channels page opens.

If you don't see any galleries in the Galleries section, it means your administrator hasn't created any yet. To learn how to create galleries (also known as 'categories'), visit our article Create categories in the Rich Media CMS.

Icons next to each gallery indicate its privacy type. For more information, see Gallery privacy types.

2. Select one or more galleries or sub-galleries.

The galleries you select appear at the top of the window, and the number of selected galleries is displayed at the bottom.
