

Onboarding path for Content Creators

Content updated: 09/12/2026

About

This guided video series walks new content creators through everything they need to know to get started in Content Hubs – from uploading your first video to creating a channel.

The series is made up of 7 short videos, and you can move through them at your own pace.

This course is great for beginners who are just getting started with Content Hubs.

What you'll learn

- An overview of Content Hubs for content creators
- How to find and manage your media in Content Hubs
- How to upload media
- How to publish your media
- How to explore media editing options
- How to create a channel in Content Hubs

Start the series

